

Coordination of European
Picture Agencies
Press Stock Heritage

Orphan Works in Practice

11.15am – 1.30pm Friday 5th June 2009, Agenda

11.15 am to 11.20 am	Welcome address – Jessica Tier, The MILE Project
11.20am to 11.35am	Luis Manuel Ferrão, EC
11.35am to 11.50am	Dr. Mihály Ficsor, President, Hungarian Copyright Council – on extended collective licensing arrangements in Europe and their practicality for dealing with orphan works
11.50am to 12.05pm	Dr. David Sutton, the WATCH file – an international database of rights holders
12.05pm to 12.20pm	Jessica Sanger, Börsenverein des Deutschen Buchhandels – on the Google Book Project settlement and the implications for images and their rights holders and how the settlement will affect practical dealing with orphan works
12.20pm to 12.35pm	Naomi Korn, Collections Trust – on the ‘In from the Cold’ project on the qualitative and quantitative results of the Orphan Works problem for images
12.35pm to 12.50pm	Randy Taylor, The Copyright Registry – update from copyright registry’s proposal to work with the US copyright office to prevent any future creation of orphan works
12.50pm to 1.05pm	Jeff Downey, PicScout – for the tracing of rights holders to be repatriated with their images. Potential orphan works resolutions
1.05pm to 1.30pm	Discussion and close